Easy Go Shuttle

How It Works

Easy Go Shuttle offers private, pre-booked transfers from Charles de Gaulle (CDG) Airport to Disneyland Paris and other destinations. Passengers are greeted by professional drivers at the arrival area holding a name sign, ensuring a smooth and comfortable journey.

Journey Time: 45–60 minutes (traffic dependent)

Cost: Fixed price starting from €75 per vehicle, with no hidden charges.

The Fine Print

What Influences Your Fare:

- Fixed-rate pricing (no meter)

- Vehicle type selected (standard, luxury, or minivan)
- Extra stops or waiting time (if requested)
- Advance booking offers guaranteed rates

Important Considerations:

- Advance booking required (no last-minute pickups without reservation)
- Instant confirmation via email with driver details
- Meet & greet service at the airport included in price
- 24/7 customer support available in multiple languages
- Child car seats available upon request (free of charge)

Advantages:

- Fixed, transparent pricing—no surprises at arrival
- Private transfer—no shared rides or detours
- Professional, multilingual drivers
- Family-friendly vehicles with luggage space
- Free waiting time for flight delays (up to 60 minutes)

Disadvantages:

- Must book in advance to secure availability
- Slightly higher base rate compared to public taxis
- Limited flexibility for spontaneous travelers

Best For:

Families, groups, or travelers who prefer comfort, reliability, and stress-free airport transfers with fixed pricing and professional service.

Direct Train: RER B + RER A Connection

How It Works

The train route requires a connection but remains one of the most economical options:

1. Take RER B from CDG Airport to Châtelet-Les Halles station (approximately 35 minutes)
2. Transfer to RER A toward Marne-la-Vallée
3. Exit at Marne-la-Vallée/Chessy station (directly at Disneyland's gates)

Total Journey Time: 75-90 minutes including transfer Cost: €20-25 per adult, reduced fare for children

Pros and Cons

Advantages:

- Most budget-friendly option for solo travelers or couples
- Trains run frequently (every 10-15 minutes during peak hours)
- Direct station access at Disneyland entrance
- No traffic concerns

Disadvantages:

- Luggage nightmare: Narrow aisles, steep stairs, no elevators at many stations
- Confusing transfers: Châtelet-Les Halles is Paris's largest metro hub—easy to get lost
- Crowded conditions: Rush hour trains packed with commuters and tourists
- Safety concerns: Pickpocketing reports common on tourist routes
- Not suitable for families: Managing children, strollers, and suitcases on crowded trains is extremely challenging

Best For:

Budget-conscious solo travelers or couples without significant luggage traveling during off-peak hours.

Magical Shuttle: Shared Airport Bus Service

The Service Details

The Magical Shuttle is the official shared bus service for this airport-to-park route.

Operating Hours: 8:30 a.m. to 7:45 p.m. (limited schedule) Journey Time: 60-90 minutes depending on traffic and number of hotel stops Cost: €23-27 per adult, €10 for children (3-11 years)

What to Expect

Booking Process:

- Advance reservation required (online or at airport desk)
- Operates on fixed schedule—you must match their departure times
- Pickup from CDG Terminals 1, 2, and 3

The Reality:

- Multiple hotel stops extend journey time significantly
- Last departure at 7:45 p.m. means late flights require alternative transport
- Luggage space can be limited during peak season
- No guarantee of English-speaking staff

Advantages:

- Direct airport pickup—no navigating train stations
- More comfortable than public trains
- Luggage handled by staff
- Child-friendly environment

Disadvantages:

- Rigid schedule: Miss your time slot, wait hours for next shuttle or find alternative
- Multiple stops: Can take 90+ minutes with numerous hotel dropoffs
- Limited evening service: No options for late-arriving flights
- Advance booking stress: Must coordinate timing with unpredictable flight arrivals

Best For:

Families on moderate budgets willing to sacrifice flexibility for direct service, arriving during daytime hours.

Standard Taxi Service

How It Works

Paris taxis operate from dedicated ranks outside each CDG terminal, offering straightforward transportation to the parks.

Journey Time: 45-60 minutes (traffic dependent) Cost: €70-100 depending on time of day, luggage quantity, and traffic

The Fine Print

What Influences Your Fare:

- Base fare plus per-kilometer charges
- Luggage supplements (€1-2 per large bag)
- Airport pickup surcharge (€4)
- Evening/weekend rates (17% higher)
- Traffic delays increase meter reading

Important Considerations:

- No advance booking means waiting in taxi queue (10-30 minutes during peak times)
- Communication barriers with non-English speaking drivers common
- Meter pricing creates uncertainty—final cost unknown until arrival
- Vehicle size varies—family of 4+ may need multiple taxis
- No child car seats provided (legally required for young children)

Advantages:

- No advance booking required
- Direct door-to-door service
- Available 24/7

Disadvantages:

- Unpredictable costs: Meter keeps running in traffic
- Long airport queues: Especially after multiple flights land simultaneously
- Language barriers: Many drivers speak limited English
- No child safety seats: Parents must bring their own or risk fines
- Luggage fees add up: Large family = multiple extra charges

Best For:

Last-minute travelers without advance plans, willing to pay premium prices for immediate availability.

Rental Car Option: For the Adventurous

The Independent Route

Renting a car at CDG for the drive to Disneyland appeals to some travelers.

Journey Time: 45-60 minutes Cost: €40-80 per day plus fuel, insurance, parking fees at Disneyland hotels (€25-35/day)

Reality Check

Considerations:

- French highway tolls (€5-8 for this route)
- Disneyland hotel parking is expensive and not always guaranteed
- Navigation in foreign country with jet lag
- Return trip coordination
- Insurance excess payments

When It Makes Sense:

- Planning extensive travel beyond Disneyland
- Group of 5+ splitting costs
- Extended stay (7+ days) with multiple destinations

When It Doesn't:

- Staying exclusively at Disneyland
- Unfamiliar with European driving rules
- Tired from long flight
- Want to relax and enjoy alcohol at Disney restaurants

Making Your Decision: Which Option Suits You?

Quick Decision Guide

Choose RER Train if:

- Solo traveler or couple only
- Minimal luggage (carry-on only)
- Extremely tight budget
- Comfortable navigating foreign transit systems

Choose Magical Shuttle if:

- Moderate budget
- Arriving during daytime hours
- Can match rigid schedule
- Okay with longer journey time

Choose Taxi if:

- Need immediate transport without planning
- No luggage concerns
- Willing to accept variable pricing

Choose Private Transfer if:

- Traveling with family (especially young children)
- Value comfort and reliability
- Want a stress-free start to vacation
- Arriving late/early hours
- Significant luggage
- Want fixed, transparent pricing

Conclusion: Start Your Disney Magic the Right Way

The journey from the airport to Disneyland sets the tone for your entire vacation. While budget considerations matter, the real question is: what's your time, comfort, and peace of mind worth?

For most families, private transfer services like Easy Go Shuttle provide the optimal balance of value, convenience, and reliability. The marginal cost difference compared to taxis disappears when you factor in included amenities, guaranteed child seats, and stress-free travel after a long international flight.

Whatever option you choose, book in advance when possible. The Paris airport experience can be overwhelming, and having your transportation confirmed before arrival eliminates one major source of vacation stress.

Your magical Disney adventure begins the moment you land at CDG—make sure your first impression is as enchanting as the parks themselves.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How long does it take to get from CDG Airport to Disneyland Paris?

A: Journey times vary by transport method: RER train (75-90 minutes with transfer), Magical Shuttle (60-90 minutes with hotel stops), taxi or private transfer (45-60 minutes direct). Private transfers offer the fastest door-to-door service.

Q: What's the cheapest way to get from CDG to Disneyland?

A: The RER train is cheapest at €20-25 per adult, but requires managing luggage through crowded stations and making a transfer. For families, when factoring in multiple tickets and convenience, private transfers often provide better overall value.

Q: Do taxis from CDG to Disneyland have child car seats?

A: No. Standard Paris taxis do not provide child car seats. Parents must bring their own or risk legal fines. Private transfer services like Easy Go Shuttle include complimentary baby seats and booster seats upon request.

Q: Can I take Uber from CDG Airport to Disneyland Paris?

A: Yes, Uber operates at CDG, though pricing is comparable to private transfers (€60-90) and may surge during peak times. Unlike dedicated transfer services, Uber doesn't guarantee child seats, luggage space, or English-speaking drivers.

Q: What time should I book transport from CDG to Disneyland?

A: For Magical Shuttle, book as early as possible to secure preferred time slots. For private transfers, booking 24-48 hours before arrival is sufficient, though services like Easy Go Shuttle accept last-minute bookings and monitor flight delays.

Q: Is there a direct bus from CDG to Disneyland?

A: Yes, the Magical Shuttle provides direct bus service, though it makes multiple hotel stops. It operates limited hours (8:30 a.m. to 7:45 p.m.), so late-arriving flights must use alternative transport like private transfers or taxis.
